

The sun has got his hat on!

Literacy

Fiction—Stories with familiar settings
 Stories with repeating patterns

Non-Fiction—Labels, lists and captions
 Information texts

Poetry—Songs and repetitive poems
 Poems with pattern and rhyme

Numeracy

Counting
 Number language
 Place value
 Addition
 Subtraction
 Shape

Art/DT

Clay—seasons tiles
 night light holders

Trees—charcoal lines/colour wash background/finger painting leaves and blossom

Leaves—pattern

Collage—seasons (materials)

Cooking

Science

Seasons
 The Sun—movement, facts, safety
 Weather
 Migration
 Hibernation
 Nocturnal animals
 Shadows

PE

Games— Bouncing and catching

Dance— Christmas dance

Gymnastics—travelling in different ways

Dance related to topic—Seasons and growth
 —exploring poetry and music with these themes

Music

Finding out about Duration as long and short sounds –play games use instruments and bodies to make sounds –identify on tracks of music

Singing songs

Finding out about Pitch as high and low sounds –identify in tracks of music , play games show using instruments or body

ICT

Use digital cameras to take photograph of each other

Understand use of algorithms

Write & test simple programs

Use logical reasoning to make predictions

Organise, store, retrieve & manipulate data
 Communicate online safely and respectfully
 Recognise uses of IT outside of school

PSHE + RE

Milestones in Family Life

Developing rules for the classroom, discuss important events in life e.g. birth, birthday, first word, tooth, step etc.

Discuss what is important in a wedding and a Christening /baptism

Act out a Christening

Explore death and how we deal with sad

The challenge:

Become a weather forecaster for a day in the St John’s studios ! Be filmed telling the weather to the eager public—do

Geography

The UK and its different countries– what it looks like Where it is in the world—some familiar features

Seasons
 Weather
 Compass directions