

Year 6 Home Learning Menu - Term 6 - Rivers and Mountains

Task Type	Option 1	Option 2	Option 3	Option 4
Thinking as a writer	Write an explanation text about a river from its source to mouth.	Write a poem about a physical geographic feature e.g. mountain, river, lake	Imagine you are an explorer. Write a diary entry about the day you summited a mountain.	Write an extract from your own adventure story - this could be the beginning, ending etc.
Thinking as a designer	Design a tourist map of Keynsham using appropriate symbols	Investigate a designer who used levers and pulleys in their designs	Create a boat out of paper that would be able to float in water. Does it work?	Investigate dams. Explain why they are built the way they are.
Thinking as a scientist	Make a poster or leaflet about Charles Darwin	Make a poster or write a story/essay about how the world would be different if	In the 1830s Charles Darwin made a round the world trip in a ship called The Beagle to learn about variation. Make a	Selective breeding of dogs has become incredibly popular in recent years with people pairing up specific breeds for

	Information you could include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - When and where were they born? - Where did they work? - What were their important scientific discoveries? - When did they die? 	dinosaurs had not gone extinct. Ideas: Think about whether humans would have evolved or not, and how dinosaurs would have evolved over time too.	poster/leaflet/presentation about his voyage.	reproduction, so that desirable traits are inherited by the offspring. Look up your favourite or unusual dog crossbreeds and create a presentation about how they've inherited specific features from their parents.
--	---	--	--	--

Children have the option of choosing one homework from the menu to complete during this term to be showcased via Seesaw in school in the last week of term.