

Hello Year 3!

Hope you are all ok! I hope you are enjoying the beautiful sunshine we are having. I am thinking of you all and miss you already.

Well done for doing all your Doodling so far – you've obviously been working really hard already and want you to keep up the good work. I'm really impressed with the work some of you have completed on Purple Mash, you have thought carefully about how to be safe while using emails. I can't wait to see your Purple Mash work next week. Hope you are working hard on your writing tasks – I can't wait to see them when you come back to school. I am looking forward to reading your leaflets to see all of the new and interesting information you now know about the Vikings – some of you will be knowledgeable enough to be visiting schools when you are older to teach them, just like our exciting Viking themed day. I hope you have been tuning into Joe Wicks each day and completing his daily work outs! They have certainly been a challenge for me

During this time apart, I have set myself the challenge to read as many Harry Potter books as I can. This week I spent many of my evening sitting with a cup of tea (which you all know I enjoy) and Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone. What are you going to challenge yourself to do?

Here I am enjoying the sunshine in school yesterday with a bit of exercise. Hope you are all up at 9am, doing your 30 minutes of exercise with Joe Wicks it has been waking me up in the morning.

If you are having problems logging onto to Doodle, please ask your grown up to email the office and we will do our best to resolve any issues. Remember to go on to Purple Mash and complete the activities set. Don't forget to check the website each Friday, for details of your home learning for the following week.

There are lots of extra things you can do at home to help your learning and here are some ideas of things to watch as well:

- David Walliams is doing a story time session every day at 11am on his website.
- Carol Vorderman is doing some Maths on her website

Remember to check the home page of the website for a weekly video message. 😊

Take care and I'll be in touch again next week,

Miss Lewis
