

As geographers we will...

- Locate countries on a map, focusing on Europe and North/ South America.
- Look at the land use in urban and rural settings.
- Study human and geographical features of different locations.
- Describe small-scale and global geographical features in comparison.

As writers we will...

- Write diary entries .
- Write narratives based on geographical locations we have studied.
- Write instructions for world foods that we have prepared.

As designers we will...

- Think about different foods and cultures from across the world.
- Create a world food, following a recipe.
- Learn about safety and hygiene when preparing and cooking food.

Wonderful World

Also

As mathematicians we will

- Understand how to add and subtract.
- Learn how to multiply and divide.
- Learn about length and perimeter.

As athletes we will

- Learn how to play invasion games
- Learn and improve our dance skills

As musicians we will

- Learn how to play the glockenspiel and sing.

As theologians we will

- Discuss what is the most significant part of the nativity story for Christians.

As computer scientists we will

- Create media using animations.

As French linguists we will

- Learn to speak and read French accompanied by a story.

As scientists we will

- Learn about changing sounds

As self-analysts we will

- Celebrate differences