

As geographers we will:

- Investigate patterns of earthquakes, mountains and volcanoes.
- Explore the different climatic and vegetation zones of the world.
- Find out about where natural resources are found.
- Explore how countries are linked through their use of natural resources.

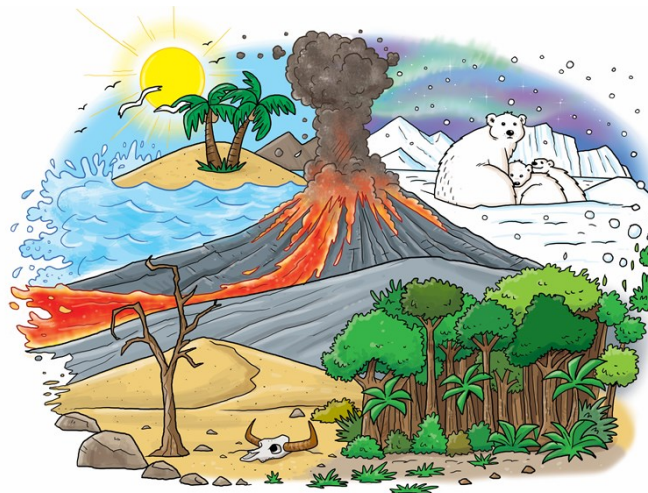

As designers we will...

- Learn about structures
- Explore how to strengthen and stabilise structures.

In the Zone!

As writers we will...

- Present information
- Write reports
- Create stories and other narratives based on the human and physical features we study.
- Write poetry based on volcanic eruptions.

Also

As mathematicians we will...

- Understand decimals
- Understand fractions
- Understand percentages

As athletes we will ...

- Learn football skills
- Improve rhythm and balance in dance.

As musicians we will

- Learn to sing and play pop ballads.

As theologians we will ...

- Discuss whether creation and science are conflicting or complementary.

As computer experts we will...

- Improve our coding skills
- Improve our use of spreadsheets.

As French linguists we will...

- Describe objects

As scientists we will

- Learn about the properties of materials.

As self-analysts we will

- Think about our dreams and goals.